

Feminists oppose the "Once stolen, always fallen" mentality.

Or the "Thou art dumber than me for being a woman"

Love is affection not "sex."

Rape is:

If you beat up a woman and then attempt to have sex with her, it's rape.

If you lie to a woman, drive her far away and won't take no (phrased any way she likes) for an answer, it's rape. Offering to watch movies, give massages, or other lies is not an excuse to coerce rape.

If you will not stop after a kiss and insist on reaching for things that you have not been offered, it's rape.

If she responds to your rape attempt, because you are hurting her vagina or breasts, with aggressive sexual behavior to get you to hurry up and finish faster, it's still rape.

If you use force, positions of power, or violence in anger, it's rape.

All Nazis are rapists, and all rapists are child molesters. All batterers are rapists. All rapists are Nazis, no matter what color they are. All Nazis are grown-ups. I want the Nazis dead.

"I just want to be friends" means she just wants to be friends. Friendship is love. Love is not possessive.

In the name of love, quit raping women and children.

Men in General:

Don't want us to touch, play with or learn to operate their "toys" without permission, close supervision, and constant intervention....Feh!

We have all been oppressed against our will by men (in general - 92%)

Men all want us to lose our virginity at as young an age as possible - ASAP

To fight their wars for them (soon to be placed in the front lines)

Bear them children to experiment on and murder slowly, as well as use as weapons.

Be violent, oppressive, and develop a tolerance for and desire to rape.

Accept theft of our innermost being.

Accept mind control experiments and cloning.

HATE other women.

Be divided against each other.

Shut up and accept that we're stupid? Accept brainwashing without retaliation, anger or snippy behavior.

Walk 7000 miles for each one of theirs in hell.

Work to pay the bills so they can profit, drink, abuse, rape, and claim they have children as a status symbol.

Teach them everything and not give us credit.

Never get jealous, angry or eventually hate them. (Lest we become "feminazis")

Accept that the term prostitute/harlot only applies to women -- and so what if women do? Some of you never pay us what we're worth or take financial responsibility for children -- as well as taking very bad care of children yourselves. We're much better friends than enemies....

Work peace, and hate nature, God, and civil rights.

Live in poverty.

Play doctor to their irresponsible behavior.

Be mother, sister, lover, best friend, and whore, but never a wife, because wives are drones.

Accept that men can have multiple wives, but women may not have polygamous/amorous relationships, not that we want them necessarily.

Be an experiment, buy their lies, and be blind all of our lives.

Accept that God belongs to them, and that "no" is an illegal word.

Spare them from the pain they cause us.

Hate sex so they can enjoy the pain on our faces during and after. Accept rape in place of no affection and love.

Accept that affection must always lead to sex or rape.

Be a goddess of a mother, a saint of a wife, and a skilled whore, in the bedroom, no matter how ill we are treated.

All women who hang out together are witches or "b*t*hes," especially if they are into any healing arts, often initiated into black magic involuntarily.

Accept ridicule, anger and violence when we say "no." Accept a lack of justice unless we fight back. Get called a "b*t*h," or the "c" word.

Accept ridicule, anger and violence when we say yes, and get called a "slut"

Accept ridicule, anger and violence when we ask for a commitment and get called a "tease."
Accept other men calling our boyfriends "pussy-whipped" repeatedly for being a nice guy or showing respect.

Let's not even mention the "c" word.

Accept condemnation when none of this criteria is met.

What happened to platonic love? (friendship hint/hint)
